

Theatre and Dance Adjunct Faculty

The Department of Theater and Dance at Baldwin Wallace University invites instructors of acting (all levels), script analysis, musical theater, and directing to submit their CV or resume for possible consideration to teach at the undergraduate level during the 2020-2021 academic year.

The successful candidate would possess a strong commitment to undergraduate teaching and collegiality. A strong commitment to multicultural and intercultural perspectives is essential. Although an MFA in theater is desired, a strong record of professional work in theater and film will also support consideration for employment.

Baldwin Wallace University is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate because of race, creed, age, disabilities, national origin, gender, or sexual orientation in the administration of any policies or programs.

Founded in 1845, Baldwin Wallace University is an independent, coeducational, comprehensive institution in the liberal arts tradition and is located 15 miles southwest of downtown Cleveland. Baldwin Wallace enrolls approximately 3,000 full-time undergraduate day students, 250 part-time students in evening and weekend programs, and 900 full and part-time graduate students.

Applications must be submitted online at <https://www.bw.edu/employment>. Please submit via one (1) Word document or one (1) PDF file containing a short cover letter, curriculum vitae or resume, contact information for three references. Files will be reviewed upon submission.
